"The only constant is change!" This well-known quote, originally attributed to Heraclitus, is still universally true, particularly for life on our beloved Island. And while every year sees changes, this summer will feel especially new in many regards.

So for better orientation let's get over the most weighty news this season! As Ibiza summers and visitors have come and gone, you could always rely on three things: The sun rises in the East, it sets in the West, and on Mondays and Thursdays there is Cocoon and Cream at Amnesia. Well, not anymore: In a move that shocked clubland, Cocoon announced its departure from longtime venue Amnesia after 18 seasons, heading over to Pacha. To avoid going up against ever-so popular Circoloco, Sven Väth and his crew moved to Wednesday nights.

Playa d'en Bossa's new superclub Hi was quick in offering a new home for the iconic Cream brand on Sundays. Amnesia will now host popular brands Abode and Do not Sleep on their Thursdays, while on Mondays techno night Pyramid will replace Cocoon.

Cream and Cocoon leaving their traditional homes are arguably the biggest, but certainly not the only moves in nightlife. Tale of Us' popular Afterlife night moves to Hi and has released a tremendous lineup, spanning both floors.

Crowd favourite Zoo Project in Benimussa Park switches to Sundays, now going up against Woomoon at Cova Santa rather than the more similar Ants at Ushuaia on Saturdays.

With all these changes going on, it's good to know that you'll still find some of your favourite parties where they were last year: Elrow continues Saturdays at Amnesia, Paradise stays at DC10 and Privilege again is hosting techno brand Resistance on Tuesdays.

A very different kind of change will become apparent when you enter Pacha this summer. In their first big refurbishment after many years, the new owners had a new architect skillfully change the layout of the whole club, while keeping the traditional feeling of the finca that it used to be. Alterations include a new DJ booth and a vast extension of the dancefloor by getting rid of the walls forming what was once the Global Room.

Bad news came for fans of the infamous West End of San Antonio. A new law for noise protection now bans the popular terraces at nighttime, forcing bars to close their open air premises at 11 pm (and indoor areas by 3 am). This is only true for a certain area in the West End though. Bars outside of this area, like Itaca, will still be able to stay open until 5 am.

Which of these moves and changes will prove successful, which will fail and eventually have to be altered again? We'll know in a few months time. Only one thing is clear: Ibiza will never cease to surprise!

SOUTH AFRICA'S HOTTEST EXPORT

Following an unforgettable debut residency in 2017, South Africa's hottest export, Black Coffee, is back for another huge season and is taking the reins each Saturday night at Hi until 6th of October.

The line-ups consist of a collection of world-class acts and special guests, which combined with awe-inspiring production and more is sure to make one of the hottest nights on the island.

Hailing from South Africa, Black Coffee has gone from strength to strength and has fast become one of the biggest stars of the global electronic music scene. Reaching double platinum selling status with his multi-award winning album 'Pieces Of Me' and collaborating with everyone from Drake to Alicia Keys, even Beyoncé and P. Diddy count amongst his fans.

Last year Black Coffee's Ibiza residency was one of the most talked about parties on the island delivering an impeccably curated line-up week after week.

With his razor sharp eye for talent at the helm, expect another summer of flawlessly put-together line ups featuring underground acts and internationally renowned Ibiza regulars. His list of guests include Andhim, Apollonia, Honey Dijon, Lauren Lane, Lazare Hoche, Nastia, Nic Fanciulli, Red Axes and The Black Madonna, covering everything from deep house to techno, disco to minimal.

SATURDAY
AT HI UNTIL 6th
OF OCTOBER

With the main man himself serving up steamy sets of house music with intoxicating rhythms and real depth, Black Coffee is the backbone of each night.

Celebrated French house trio Apollonia will dig deep for a special extended set on July 28th. Other special sets come on August 4th from Radio 1 new music tastemaker Benji B, who plays back to back with celebrated fashion designer, Off White founder and new Louis Vuitton creative director Virgil Abloh, while techno fans will be pleased to see Ukranian star Nastia on the bill for September 8th with Andhim and Mandar. Djebali offers classy deep house on September 29th with Andrea Oliva also joining. There will be a unique mix of synths and guitar sounds from Red Axes, bass heavy house from Lauren Lane, infectious tech from Moon Harbour's Emanuel Satie and colourful house from Vatos Locos main man Hector, as well as plenty more throughout this carefully constructed season.

Of course, all these final names come on top of the likes of previously announced acts such as Âme, Bedouin, Guy Gerber, Damian Lazarus, Luciano, Loco Dice, Mandar, Lee Burridge, Jamie Jones, Blond:ish, Culoe de Song, Audioly and many more.

With his residency Black Coffee has embarked on another much anticipated season and his parties look like they will raise the bar once again in 2018!

IDOLS AT SANKEYS

Techno Made in Germany

Ask about the most well-known international techno DJs, and the list of names throws up something that leaves no doubt: "Made in Germany" still serves as a quality mark in electronic music circles.

That hasn't changed significantly since the beginning of the new millennium. At the top of any list of big record-breakers of all times is the name of a man from the small town of Bückeberg in Lower Saxony: Timo Maas.

His numerous remixes brought him international recognition in the 90s. With the trance track "Die Herdplatte" he attracted global attention for the first time, and his follow-up tracks "Borg Destroyer", "Eclipse" or "Riding On A Storm" found their way into the record bags of many well-known DJs.

This season, Timo Maas is the host of "Idol", the new Tuesday night at Sankeys. With decades of experience and collaborations with some of the biggest artists in the industry, Timo is very well known and respected on the Island and has a reputation for always making the crowd go crazy. He has invited an outstanding array of artists to perform alongside him every week such as Daniel Miller, Martin Buttrich, Roman Flügel, Matthew Herbert, DJ Hell, Alex-Neri, Basti Grub, Sebastian Mullaert and Tiefschwarz who will help to create the soundtrack for a futuristic trip where music and art merge.

MAX LOEWE

CLOUDS

Following up Max Loewe's debut album "Change" which was released in May 2018, the Ibiza based DJ & producer comes up with a phenomenal new release called "Clouds" (The White Sheeps)

Pure Ibiza deep house, including a Discey remix. A timeless must-have in every virtual DJ case and playlist!

DYSTOPIA

Karma Has No Deadline

Ushuaïa Ibiza launches a brand new festival concept on Fridays, Dystopia, a hub of creativity that strikes a contrast to the modern world.

As if viewed through a distorted lens, music, live art and performances radically immerse you into a - even for Ibiza - very unconventional experience. With Luciano playing 11 shows the weekly line-ups have festival dimensions, with a wide array of first class artists like Bedouin, Dan Ghenea, Patrice Bäumel, Damian Lazarus, Red Axes, Moscoman or Shaun Reeves on the bill.

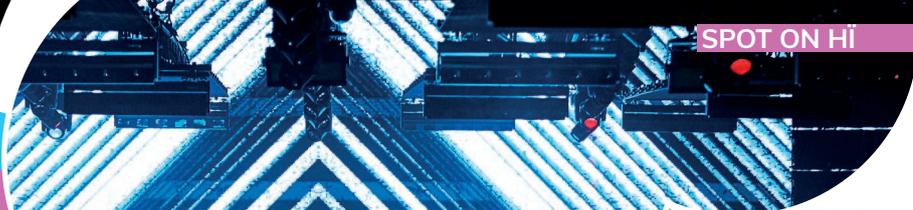

This brand new form of event is a concept that knows no boundaries. Dystopia is disorientating, brutal and idealistic all at once. It is an immersive and surreal experience into music, art and self-expression. Suddenly perspectives are transformed and the world is turned upside down, filled with visual curiosities and interactive experiences.

The audience is invited to explore their creativity and take part in this sensorial world. People navigate through new areas like chill out spaces, a playground for adults, healing zones, a pop-up market, food trucks and more.

CREAM IBIZA JOINS HI

Trance Sundays

ALL LINE-UPS

Ibiza's trance heavyweight Cream this summer moves from Amnesia to its shiny new home in Playa d'en Bossa.

As the island's longest running UK club night, Cream continues to be a must-visit party in Ibiza each year, with 2018 already looking set to continue the trend. Throughout the summer every Sunday until 23rd September, Hi will play host and support Cream's ongoing reputation for delivering some of the biggest names in dance music.

The stage is set for a long list of big-name acts, including confirmed artists Afrojack, Dimitri Vegas & Like Mike, Don Diablo, MK and NERVO. Then you have Diplo, Hardwell and Steve Angello as party regulars.

The Cream gang will be also joined by two artists that are no strangers to the Theatre room, Dutch Oliver Heldens and German Robin Schulz. For Belgian duo Wolfpack, who go from strength-to-strength as they continue their meteoric rise to the top, it's their Hi Ibiza debut. Jonas Blue is hosting the Club room with his Electronic Nature concept.

Expect a mind blowing production, a devoted crowd and an unbeatable atmosphere on Sundays!

Enter The Pyramid

This year Amnesia has a new Monday called Pyramid, a new concept that rises from an idea to bring back to the club the authentic Ibiza vibes. This event intends to send us back to the good old days.

On Mondays, Cassy, Charlotte De Witte, Cuartero, Craig Richards, Darius Syrossian, DJ Sneak, Luca Donzelli, Luigi Madonna, Luciano, Solomun and Ricardo Villalobos will be in charge of creating that feeling of the real essence of Ibiza.

For their 8th season, Together is returning for 16 Tuesday nights with some of the greatest DJs of the electronic scene such as Chase & Status, Hannah Wants, DJ EZ and Sigma.

The legendary Foam parties are still one of the main attractions at Amnesia. "With its mix of music, colours and bubbles, we make Wednesday nights the most refreshing one of all the island."

On Wednesdays, Vibra is bringing a totally new party concept to the Terrace and on Thursday nights Abode together with Do Not Sleep will be in charge.

The probably craziest and most colourful party in Ibiza, Elrow, has chosen Amnesia to turn Saturday nights upside down. Friday stays in the hands of Italian stallion Marco Carola.

10 GIGS

you SHOULDN'T MISS!

AUG. & SEPT. 2018

by our Editor Matthias Daniel (@MatthiasDaniel on Twitter)

1. DJ KOZE
 at Cocoon Daytime, Destino, August 2nd

This nostalgic disco house tune with female vocals, you've heard that, right? A sad voice full of nostalgia singing about goodbyes? It's called Pick Up and is everywhere this summer. Incredibly it's the third time that Koze's finds himself with an Ibiza hit of the season, after his 2014 remix of Moderat's Bad Kingdom and the spherical XTC in 2015. Don't miss this open air event, serving as the after for Cocoon's Pacha party from the night before.

2. ADAM BEYER B2B JOSEPH CAPRIATI
 at Resistance, Privilege, August 7th

This summer Adam Beyer continues his role as the island's favourite nomad, with every club fighting over a set from him. This particular night sees a proper Drumcode takeover of Privilege, with a one-night-only special b2b with the newest superstar of techno Joseph Capriati. Support comes from label friends Pan Pot and Enrico Sangiuliano. True heaven for techno aficionados!

3. RICARDO VILLALOBOS B2B LUCIANO
 at Pyramid, Amnesia, August 13th

The thing about b2b sets is that when they work they tend to be nights that go down in party history. However, when the pairing doesn't exactly work, it fails miserably. So it is with a clear conscience that we can recommend the duo of Villalobos and Luciano, a formula tried and tested over years but still feeling fresh and special every time. Try it!

4. AMÉ LIVE
 at Black Coffee, Hi Ibiza, August 18th

The German duo is the epitome of job sharing: while Kristian does all the DJ sets, Frank is the one they'll send for live shows of just their own productions. Having recently released their debut album 'Dream House', there'll be no shortage of new, emotive tracks to play here, getting the crowd in the right groove for Black Coffee's headline slot.

5. OSUNLADE
 at Woomoon, Cova Santa, August 26th

The mysterious Osunlade has been championing the Woomoon sound long before there was Woomoon. For years he's been incorporating traditional African sounds and voices in his productions on the Yoruba label. Tribal, trippy and often with a touch of the unexpected, he should fit perfectly into Woomoon's esoteric ethos. This is one of only two Osunlade appearances on the island this year, so catch him while you can!

6. PEGGY GOU
 at Paradise, DC10, September 5th

The word hype often comes with a derogatory connotation, as if someone's success is somewhat undeserved. So it would be incorrect to refer to the huge buzz around the Berlin based Korean artist as a hype. Her bulging tour calendar with appearances all over the globe is well merited. Peggy's sets are meandering between house and techno, unaware of boundaries, big on the groove. Somebody to look out for!

7. ANSWER CODE REQUEST LIVE
 at Afterlife, Hi, September 6th

I know, going out two nights in a row?! After DC10 yesterday? Yes, because this night is worth the sleep deprivation, with one of Berghain's very own techno masters. In this show he will exclusively play his own tracks, and if you like dark and industrial techno with the odd broken-beat intermezzo you have found your night. So drop two aspirins and off we go!

8. BEHROUZ
 at Do Not Sit, Heart, September 13th

Behrouz is a gem! What a humble and unpretentious man! He's never been one for the big effects but rather taking you subtly by the ear, on a mystical journey into ever so popular nomad and desert house sounds. A snake charmer really, with the snake being you. This is his very own night, so you could go on another Thursday as well. With Matthias Meyer the 13th has a highly recommended special guest, though.

9. DYNAMIC SHOWCASE
 at DC 10, September 14th

Now with the hundredth release under their belt (Solomon's own Customer is King), Solomon is taking his Dynamic label friends for a little staff outing to DC10. And guess what: You're invited. All Dynamic artists are on the bill. Apart from the boss man we are particularly looking forward to the Adriatique guys smashing the dancefloor and another set from production wizard HOSH.

10. SVEN VÄTH
 at Cocoon, Pacha, September 20th

Leaving long time home Amnesia was a gamble that few would dare. But Sven, sticking to his mantra 'the only constant in life is change', didn't shy away from the challenge and, safe to say, has proved critics wrong. Våth feels as native to Pacha as the cherries! And yes, he is still playing as much as techno tracks as ever. Go check it out for yourselves!

When was your first DJ gig in Ibiza? What do you remember from it?

My first big gig was the old Space Terrace 1996 Sunday morning. The DJ was not in a booth where everybody could see him but behind the bar, and you were looking through a window. The gig was fantastic. The energy at Space was always very special!

What was your most timeless moment in Ibiza?

Well, the most timeless moment is every summer when you fly in for the first time and land in Ibiza, knowing that summer is here and you gonna have a great time. Party-wise, you could say the Space openings and closings back in the day are timeless and unforgotten for a whole generation of party animals.

Why is Lio the perfect location for your Timeless parties?

Lio is one of the most beautiful venues on the island. The view near the water with the boats passing by while you are having dinner watching the performers is just unique. I'm happy to turn Lio every Tuesday for the last 6 years now into a club!

We play house with a great mix of old and new tracks. This is what works best these days. Some DJs might not agree but I'm pretty sure they also have a lot of classics in their record case these days. The new music is not as innovative and soulful, so I think a mix works best. Come and join us at Lio on Tuesdays, even if you not have booked a table for dinner. It's great fun and party after the show.

Given that Ibiza has changed a lot in the last years, do you have a rather nostalgic or a optimistic feeling?

I go with the flow. Some places are not so much my thing anymore. Not only is Ibiza changing, you should change as well. I have so many great memories from this place and still love spending time here. I ride with the bike to the beaches and I love our parties at Lio. I have a lot of great friends here and we hang out and have fun enjoying the summer.

Music Is The Elixir Of Life

ROMAIN VILLEROY

After more than 20 years of experience as a producer, Romain Villeroy ventured into the commercial field and published his first radio edit with the song "Rise", a co-production with Noah Alexander, an American songwriter from Hollywood with a fantastic voice that literally makes the song rise.

His first big hit was followed by a Top Ten chart and a Top 60 Single chart in his home country, Switzerland. In the last few months he has brilliantly shown his remixing skills with a version of "A Hero Like You" by the Swiss disco funk heroes "Frik n Chic", a remix of Ed Sheeran's "Perfect", of Pink's "What about us" and of Rudimental's "These Days". His relationship with Ibiza started in the early 90s when the club scene was not as developed as it is today. What still fascinates him is "that you can be always happy in Ibiza: summer, sun, love, beauty, parties, freedom, peace!"

Ibiza is an inspiring place for him: "Music and love are the elixirs of life. Without music, there is no love, without love, no music!"

For Romain Villeroy the best thing about being a producer is that "nothing stands in your way in creativity. You can do anything you want. The nicest thing of course is to hear your tracks on the radio or in a club."

He is currently working on more remix projects, as well as a new single for release later this year. You can listen to his music every Saturday evening from September to May on Soulfulradio.com where he is hosting his own radio show.

DAMAE

Gimme Your Love!

If you are a house and dance lover, you've been listening to Damae's voice probably many, many times in the last two decades. She is one of those vocalists who touches our souls and still gives us goosebumps.

Now her latest release "Gimme Your Love (Na Na Na Na Na)" is out, set to be one of those summer hits you'll never forget!

For 12 years the beautiful performer, songwriter and musical entrepreneur was the lead singer and voice of Fragma, one of Europe's most successful dance acts over the last years. Fragma had no less than 10 international chart topping singles such as "You Are Alive" and "Memory".

Since the year 2000 Damae has toured around the world from Australia to Brazil, England to Scandinavia, USA to Russia, France and many other destinations. She is a regular guest in Ibiza and has performed for F**ck Me I'm Famous alongside David Guetta and Erick Morillo, at Space with Jesus Luz, at Sa Trinxà and most recently at Lío.

Many of her videos were filmed in Ibiza, amongst them the music clips for "Illusion" and "Phoenix". Her new track "Gimme Your Love" is a collaboration with Dutch songwriter Mijke Breepoel and the talented newcomer from the dancehall scene, Bob Paul. It includes also a club mix by the Latin house king Jerry Ropero plus a chill out version with guitar riffs.

ARMIN VAN BUUREN

Superb Sounds
At The Superclub!

WEDNESDAYS
at Hi Ibiza

Armin van Buuren takes control of the Theatre Room at Hi each and every Wednesday until 13th September. For more than two decades, the Dutch producer has been a global ambassador for trance, and is widely recognised as one of the biggest DJs in the world.

Armin was born in 1976 in Leiden, the Netherlands. He grew up in a family of musicians: his father enjoyed many different styles of music, and his brother Eller van Buuren is a guitarist. As a result, Armin was fascinated by music since his childhood and spent his money time and time again on new records. When he was ten years old, his mother won a computer, which increased his interest in those devices. After watching his uncle experimenting with sequencers on the computer, Armin also wanted to produce music. At the age of 14, he finally bought his first sampler, took his father's synthesizer and started making music.

As he prepares to play his part in Ibiza's nightlife this summer with his all new residency at Playa d'en Bossa's superclub Hi Ibiza, the GRAMMY nominated artist will be joined by an array of big name guest DJs such as Alexander Popov, Aly & Fila, Ben Gold, Purple Haze, Vicky Devine and many more!

DO'S

- ▶ Spend at least one whole afternoon on a boat, sailing on the blue waters and watching the island from a different perspective! Whether on a private charter, excursion or even a boat party - being on board is priceless and unforgettable!
- ▶ Put some trainers on and park at the Salinas beach parking, follow the dusty path into the pine woods which will lead you to some small private coves where nudists like to sunbathe. At the very end you will find a pirate tower which is the closest geographical point to Formentera from Ibiza.
- ▶ When was the last time you did something for the first time? At the end of Talamanca beach, after Sa Punta restaurant, is one of the most amazing spots for cliff jumping. From 2 to 12 metres everybody can set new goals and let some fears go!
- ▶ Go to Punta Galera to enjoy the amazing sunset, laying on one of those huge flat rocks, where you can also get "homemade" sea salt from Alex, the friendly cave man who is living from donations from the visitors.

- ▶ Visit the Sant Jordi flea market on Saturdays where locals are selling their stuff at very low prices. You always will find really amazing bargains. The people and especially drummers make a very special atmosphere that you wouldn't have expected so close to Playa d'en Bossa.
- ▶ Try one of Ibiza's famous villa parties. Most incredible locations with good vibe people are waiting for you and you are tasting the latest trends from the island. Try to make friends with some season workers! It's hard to get your name on the lists, but NOTHING IS IMPOSSIBLE!
- ▶ One of Ibiza's best kept secrets is Casita Verde's vegetarian Sunday lunch in the valley of Benimussa. Head there between 14 - 16.00h and enjoy a delicious menu for only 10 euros, learn great things about permaculture and alternative ways of living.

DON'T'S

◀ Don't eat the usual dishes you know from home! Ibiza is an international place where so many cultures meet. Try to eat something you have never tried before and get some new cooking ideas as a souvenir.

◀ Don't bring huge speakers to the calm beaches as many locals go there to get away from the loud environment. Always respect others and you will be respected!

◀ Don't only dance to electronic music in the big clubs but watch out for some live music such as Flamenco or other performances of bands and singers in places such as Cafe Pereyra in the centre of Ibiza town. Let some wild nights begin with some sexy hip shaking moments to the rhythms of the world - ideally, with a glass of iced Hierbas in your hand!

◀ Don't be rude to Spanish people when they don't speak English fluently and maybe have a hard time understanding you because of your dialect. Instead try to learn some words Spanish! You'll need them one day!

◀ Don't carry your most important belongings to the crowded nightclubs like ID and all credit cards, as unfortunately especially in high season there are many pickpockets around.

◀ Don't take a plastic bag for everything you buy in the supermarkets, please! They tend to give you bags for every little item, not being aware of how terribly this affects the island and all the marine eco system. Be smart and use one of those cool Ibiza baskets or a cotton bag!

◀ Don't only spend time at the same beach club in front of your hotel, as the island has so many amazing spots to offer which often are not advertised but can be found by asking the locals.
